I. REPRESENTATION AND CREDENTIALS

Rule 1

Each State party to the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (hereinafter referred to as the Convention) shall be represented at the meeting of States parties (hereinafter referred to as the meeting) by an accredited representative. If more than one representative is named, one shall be designated as the head of the delegation. Each delegation may also include such alternate representatives and advisers as may be required.

Rule 2

The credentials of representatives and the names of members of a delegation shall be submitted to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, if possible not later than one week before the date fixed for the opening of the meeting. The credentials shall be issued by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs. The Secretary-General shall report to the meetings on the credentials.

Rule 3

Pending the decision of the meeting upon the report on credentials, the representatives of the participating States parties shall be entitled provisionally to participate in the meeting.

II. OFFICERS

Rule 4

The meeting shall elect a Chairman and one to four Vice-Chairman from among the representatives of the States parties.

Rule 5

If the Chairman is absent from a meeting or any part thereof, a Vice-Chairman nominated by him shall preside. The Vice-Chairman, when acting as Chairman, shall have the same powers and duties as the Chairman.

Rule 6

The Chairman or Vice-Chairman acting as Chairman may in his capacity as representative appoint one of his alternates or advisers to participate in the proceedings and to vote in the meetings in his place. In such a case, the Chairman or Acting Chairman shall not vote.

III. SECRETARIAT

Rule 7

The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall be responsible for making the arrangements connected with the meeting. He or his representatives may participate in the meeting and may make either oral or written statements to the meeting concerning any question under consideration.

IV. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Rule 8

A quorum shall be constituted by the representatives of two thirds of the States parties to the Convention.

Rule 9

The Chairman shall declare the opening and closing of each meeting, and at such meetings shall direct the discussions, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote, announce decisions, rule on points of order and, subject to these rules of procedure, have complete control of the meeting. In exercising these functions the Chairman shall remain under the authority of the meeting.

V. VOTING

Rule 10

Each State party represented at the meeting shall have one vote.

Rule 11

Decisions of the meeting shall be made by a majority of the representatives present and voting except as regards the election of the members of the Committee against Torture, which shall be conducted in accordance with rules 13, 14 and 15 of these rules of procedure.

Rule 12

For the purposes of these rules, the phrase "representatives of States parties present and voting" shall mean representatives casting an affirmative or a negative vote. Representatives who abstain from voting are considered as not voting.

VI. ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE AGAINST TORTURE

Rule 13

1. The 10 members of the Committee against Torture shall be experts of high moral standing and recognized competence in the field of human rights, who shall serve in their personal capacity.
2. The members of the Committee against Torture shall be elected from a list of persons possessing the qualifications prescribed in paragraph 1 of this rule and nominated by the States parties, consideration being given to equitable geographical distribution and to the usefulness of the participation of some persons having legal experience. The list of all persons nominated shall be prepared by the Secretary-General and submitted to the States parties in conformity with the Convention.
3. Each State party may nominate one person from among its own nationals. States parties shall bear in mind the usefulness of nominating persons who are also members of the Human Rights Committee established under the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and who are willing to serve on the Committee against Torture.

Rule 14

Elections of members of the Committee against Torture shall be held by secret ballot.

Rule 15

The persons elected to the Committee against Torture shall be those nominees who obtain in the first ballot the largest number of votes and an absolute majority of the votes of the representatives of States parties present and voting. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of persons to be elected, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates who obtained the largest number of votes in the previous ballot and candidatures being limited to not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, provided that, after the third inconclusive ballot, votes may be cast for any eligible nominee.
